RAFAEL VINCENT D. MEDINA

Candelaria, Quezon | +63 926 495 5949 | rafaelmedz17@gmail.com | github.com/rafmedz17

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

BS Computer Science graduate with experience in real estate document encoding, verification, and quality control, plus hands-on IT support training. Built and deployed a web-based thesis archiving system. Interested in IT software development and engineering, Quality Assurance and Data operations roles.

EXPERIENCE

Document Encoding and Quality Control Specialist | MDPS | June 2026 – Present

- Encode static and dynamic information from real estate deeds and mortgage documents ingested into the client system
- Verify entries against source documents and perform quality control checks for accuracy and completeness.
- Train new data encoders and QA staff

Internship: IT Support Group| OMNILUCK

- Maintenance of Application and Database servers
- Debugging and Database refresh
- Hardware troubleshooting and fixes

SELECTED PROJECT

Web-Based Thesis Archiving System | 2025

- Developed an archiving SaaS, including UI/UX, Admin User module, Archive function module features.
- Deployed a public version of the Application enabling real-time web browsing experience of the Thesis Archiving System
- Code: github.com/rafmedz17/ThesisRevision

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Development: React, TypeScript, JavaScript, HTML, CSS, Node.js, MySQL, Git, GitHub
Document operations: Data encoding, record verification, quality control, company data systems
IT support: Desktop hardware replacement, Database startup procedures

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science | June 2026 Graduate
Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation Candelaria Inc.

REFERENCE

Mr. Alwin Ilumin

Department Head and Professor of Computer Science

Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation Inc.

Candelaria, Quezon

aldwinilumin@gmail.com